

K-Love is an excellent radio station. It truly is positive and encouraging. It is great when someone can be "channel surfing" the radio and come upon a Christian radio station. They will learn that Christianity is not all about "don't do this, don't do that", but rather God's love and sharing it with everyone... publicly. The college I attend is a supporter of National Public Radio. It is a Christian university and I believe K-Love is the reason it supports NPR. Please keep K-Love on air.
